

TEN ELECTRO-COMMANDMENTS

- I. Beware the lightning that lurketh in an undischarged condenser lest it cause thee to bounce upon thy buttocks in a most ungentlemanly manner.
- II. Cause thou the switch that supplieth large quantities of juice to be opened and thusly tagged that thy days may be long in the earthly vale of tears.
- III. Prove to thyself that all circuits that radiateth and upon which thou worketh are grounded and thusly tagged lest they lift thee to radio frequency potential and causeth thee to make like a radiation, too.
- IV. Tarry not amongst fools that engage in intentional shocks for they are surely non-believers and are not long for this world.
- V. Take care thou useth the proper method when thou taketh the measure of a high voltage circuit so that thou dost not incinerate both thee and thy testmeter, for verily, though thou has no account number and can be easily written off, the testmeter doth have one and as a consequence bringeth much woe unto the Supervisor.
- VI. Take care thou tampereth not with interlocks and safety devices, for this incurreth the wrath of thy Supervisor and bringeth the fury of Management about thy head and shoulders.
- VII. Work thou not on energized equipment for if thou so doest thy co-workers will surely be buying beers for thy widow and consoling her in certain other ways not generally acceptable to thee.
- VIII. Verily, verily I say unto thee, never service equipment alone, for electrical cooking is sometimes a slothful process and thou might sizzle in thine own fat upon a hot circuit for hours on end before thy Maker sees fit to end thy misery and drag thee into His fold.
- IX. Trifle thou not with radioactive tubes and substances lest thou commence to glow in the dark like a lightening bug and thy wife be frustrated nightly and have no further use for thee except for thy wages.
- X. Commit thou to memory all the words of the prophets which are written down in the 18th chapter of thy bible, which is the TI Safety Precautions, and which giveth out with the straight dope and consoleth thee when thou has suffered a ream job by thy Supervisor.
